

INTRODUCING THE FIRST-EVER PIPE DREAMS CAREER WORKSHOP

WITH BRANDMAN UNIVERSITY

Don't have the kind of career you want?

Accelerate your success with greater ease and less struggle!

Turn your career dreams into reality!

HIGHFIVE
CAREER COACHING

Move from struggle to success with greater self-awareness, inspiration, and motivation! In this two-day workshop facilitated by author and career expert Mike Gellman, you will gain the tools for taking charge of your own career while supported in a highly engaging and interactive classroom environment. The class includes career assessments, personal reflection, facilitated discussion, and practical individual/group exercises. This workshop is designed for working professionals and students at any stage of their career.

Workshop Benefits

You will be able to:

- Assess your current career status and potential
- Describe your ideal career and why it's right for you
- Overcome obstacles and build on personal strengths
- Create a career action plan that gets results
- Get a personal career assessment report with potential career paths
- Claim your bonus personal career coaching session

Assessing Your Career Mindset

You will start the day by assessing your career mindset that includes digging into common career myths and uncovering blind spots that may be holding you back from the career you desire.

Assembling Your Career System

Next, you will begin assembling your career system. To do this, we'll utilize the proven 7 Pipelines of Career Success™ method to help you gain needed clarity and focus.

Managing Your Career Journey

Lastly, you'll get tools for managing your career journey. This includes strategies for navigating resistance, overcoming fear, taking risks, and maintaining your career over time.
